
GENDER INEQUALITY IN UNIVERSITIES: THE PROBLEM IS WOMEN?

GUEST TALK BY PAT O'CONNOR UNIVERSITY OF LIMERICK, IRELAND - All are welcome

Thursday 31 August 12-13

Mogens Zielerstuen, Fredrik Nielsens Vej 2-4
8000 Aarhus C

Professor Pat O'Connor is Professor Emeritus of Sociology and Social Policy at the University of Limerick, Ireland. She has been principal investigator on a five year (2012-17) EU Framework 7 cross national project on Female Empowerment in Science in Academia (FESTA) and member of the five person expert group on Gender Equality in Irish Higher Education Institutions (HEA, 2016). Pat's research concerns organisational and institutional gendered power: in semi-state structures, in the academy, in the family and in the wider society.

Her recent article and book publications include the following titles "Gendered Success in Higher Education: Global Perspectives," "Changing the Gender Profile of the Professoriate: an Irish Case Study", "Towards a New Gender Agenda and a Model for Change," "Excellence in university staff evaluation: a problematic reality ", "Exploration of Masculinities in academic organisations: A tentative typology using career and relationship, commitment", "Management and Gender in Higher Education".

Contact: For more information about the guest talk please contact professor Helle Prætorius Øhrwald, hp@biomed.au.dk